Hon. Judge Koeltl:

I represent defendant New York Commissary in the above-described cause of action. I write to request that the conference, currently scheduled for tomorrow afternoon, be adjourned for several weeks. I make this request for two reasons.

First, the Jewish holiday of Purim will be observed tomorrow. While work is permitted on Purim, the late afternoon of that holiday is reserved for gatherings of family and/or friends to partake of a festive meal. The conference is scheduled for late in the afternoon and would prevent me from participating in that aspect of the observance of the holiday.

I did not realize that the conference would coincide with Purim until recently and, under ordinary circumstances, would not have had the temerity to request an adjournment of the conference for that reason so close to the date on which it is scheduled to take place. In this case, however, a conference tomorrow would serve little, or no, purpose inasmuch as the party that was added to the cause of action by plaintiff's Amended Complaint has yet to appear or respond in any way.

I reached out to the attorney for the plaintiff to ensure that he had no objection to a request for an adjournment and am pleased to be able to report that he concurred that we would all be better served by postponing this conference for at least a few weeks.

Accordingly, I respectfully request that the conference be rescheduled for two or three weeks hence. Thank you for your anticipated consideration and understanding.

Respectfully submitted,

Mark Hus
